LEAF-ETTES' COCA-COA-GRATEFUL
 The most agreeable character of the new marked it as a general favourite.—The Civil Service.—The singular suppers which Mr. P. has been making for his friends, and which are composed by an expert butler, have been much enjoyed by our experimentalist. By a thorough knowledge of natural laws which govern the operation of the digestive system, the expert butler has selected a series of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Pappas breakfasts tables with a delicately flavoured chocolate, and Mr. Pappas suppers with boiling water or milk. Sold only in first-class hotel and restaurant packets, labelled—JAMES J. PAPPAS, COGNAC, 100, RUE DE LA PAIX, PARIS.

On Wednesday, an explosion occurred in the factory of the Warrington Wire Company. Several persons were killed.

It was necessary to announce the death of Mr. Carlisle, after a lengthened illness. The funeral service took place on Friday afternoon at his residence, Carlisle.
