

T. C. Angus, of B... e reported in last...
tally to one of t... died on Sunday...
Angus, Ravenswor... the injuries ther...
y after the mel...
at Mrs. Potten...

her sufferings were as feared that his health, and these gloomy, and her untimely death, Pottenger was the former minister in Newcastle, and at Rawdon. She affectionate dispositions towards her friends. In Newcastle will be felt by all who had more recent acquaintance. It occurred she was of seeing an intimation in question died took place. Mr. Pottenger on Thursday remained with her, and were not many days before her death. On Sabbath evening, the pastor of Mrs. Pottenger's church, the pastor of the chapel, and the deacon, and on the Friday following, the inflammation and not the slightest hope.

THE

Tuesday morning a

[illegible]

He was forwarded to Mr. COLQUHOUN, who was confined in the H. M. Prison, by the Union deputy both considered a member of the House. She and the next was Mr. BROOKER, Margaret, 4th of July, at She gave the parties was called in by the mother at the daughter had been on nurses previously; that she delivered her child at the end of a week her daughter was nurse; that she was in a warm bath and she felt better; that she was three or four better than a letter he would be able during the night, and the following day she was much, and said she was her, and said Mr. HAGGIE asked as guardian of the child to leave to the Chairman: It is wrong, and he was wrong for them to poor, must protect Mr. BROOKER, before Mr. HAGGIE: It is fine! The Chairman made a statement that Mr. BROOKER was giving the facts of health was such a removal would be also show the kindness by Mrs. letter from Mrs. denied that the washed in a day all properly aired. fire. She gave to left the room to blame whatever and attention was

The CHAIRMAN had taken a case of influenza for a few days. He did not know made, as she v doctors' certificate.

Mr. HAGGIE they should not Mr. COLQUHOUN perhaps not a person in the might go out the

Mr. HAGGIE case.

Mr. BROWN case.

The subject that no response

REDGILL

Mr. BROWN Intimating that being full, no further notice

Mr. BROWN that the Clerk any private or public interest

It was also seconded by should have to send the luncheon expedient.

Dr. Doug appointed or

Mr. BACCHIBALD of Mr. Haggie who had paid Mr. Haggie

Ramsay we
The diffic
the followi Ramsay's master of t

