

mode, by the application of scientific research.

of the police forces in towns—the powers that particularly in London, have shown themselves so deficient in meeting the requirements of their office, that

I appeal, then, to you all, delegates of these nations, because I see no better guides in meeting varied difficulties than the leaders in England.

1908. In these the subscriptions had amounted to 7s 8d, and the expenditure to £8.756 4s 9d, leaving a balance of £234 2s 11d in favour of the institutions. 7 ed with them. During the year 78 lectures had been given in seven institutions. Readings had been given at the institutions with marked in the whole, whilst seven reports a decrease of 16 a balance of increase of 388. The financial rev-reports from the delegates of the various institutions were received. Mr R. Fisher stated that the Newcastle Men's Club had some 200 members, an increase ...in which various suggestions were made, notations were suggested, hints as to institute manage-in connection with the Mechanics' Institute there with a great share of patronage; Walker, rejoined Mr Crawford, had suffered with the depression.

of the working classes is widely known. He said: "I walked the door of the Mechanics' Institute reading a book."

... of Gateshead, spoke of one feature which as had been a matter of regret, but in other respects it had been a success.

... A discussion followed, and the INCHESTER PETTY SESSIONS.

AY.—Before A. H. TALMADGE and E. T. SMITH.

is charged by Mary Ann Lazenby with keeping a dog, by which her dress was damaged. It appeared on the 12th inst. the complainant, who rates dismissed the case, as the children had no here they were, and nothing had been known

—Edward Reed, of Casey Quarry House, a

ALLY USING A GUN.—George Reed and Timothy

... were each fined £3 and costs, or three months' imprisonment.

a.—Ralph Fewick, of Anfield Plain, was by W. W. Thompson, the Notary.

OF THE LICENSED VICTUALLERS' ACT.—Wm. St Kyo, publican, was charged by P.C. New-

he had found on the road, towards the pinfold. He said that defendant had rendered himself Prisoners had, on their way from Lams...

in his possession.—Fined £5 and costs, and his dog to be destroyed.

He had undoubtedly been committed.—Mr. Stobbs, of the prisoner Stobbs, pleaded guilty, with circumstances. He denied that the girl—charged with aiding and abetting the fight by side to the principals in the fight.—To find and coat 20s. to put the badges right, and the herbage 10s.—Fined £2 each, and costs 10s. each.

... person escaped, leaving a large bag of him.—The Dutch.

