EARTHQUAKES IN AMERICA.—A

of earthquake shocks has visited us, damage being done in many places, but especially in the States of Carolina. Charleston is said to be ruined, at least three-fourths of the city destroyed. The loss of life is not known, but it is believed that many persons lost their lives. At least sixty deaths were reported. Terrible panics existed books were experienced, and in people, thinking their houses were out of the window.
