

Mr. Robert H. ...

GARIBOLDI

The news from Italy via telegrams. The king's march upon, attack things associated with the platform which have movements in warfare. described by a French morning of the 21st day without having met. We arrived in a great companies were organized themselves as Viva Garibaldians, who almost point-blank: left arm and his presidential chance, I sought refuge in consisted of eight companies of laborers, and a battalion had been despatched to prevent us from approaching the mountains had engaged them after them.

By
on
By

our hands, and had dispersed in to find refuge in a market at noon from a
that I was not killed, I called two bersaglieri the soldiers in it gave them was the son of the wounded. I took the tassels of the colour-
was on the heights
received orders to go the fort of the Marine sisted of two bands of red and the other white balli, who pressed in clasp the hand of a be-I preserve the white
evening to continue o

A communication
some account of the volunteers:—"Once
troops did not make not to Opera

official support force. A superior force. A was formidable, and forces of Generals M numerous than those took possession of being forced to quit Montelone after the despatch, received ye combustion the news.
formed a junction w
isolated in Camp d Fiala is a plateau, h and a little further That position offers cut off from the cor called to capitulate Scylla, as he was be Gariibaldi is, moreo Catanzaro, and can land at present all The small group of act on the three Cal That of Capri has Rificata, Cilent,

On 2

THE COMING
The Il Garibaldi Reggio and the route immediately occupied him preparing to march men towards Naples from Sicily, as lost from Genoa. Last Naples with troops coast. The last idea all the royal forces stand within eight expected that the King the defence of the capital seems to be inclined to. The situation of the described:—The po Garibaldi; the three provided with orders to these provinces had royal troops retreat advancing. Such

Bailey
and c

Diplomacy, like position. The Marquis, minister, was obliged to be permitted to go to Naples. This big journals very much of King Victor Emmanuel to be proclaimed to the Bay of Naples.

All the nobles had great number of troops to the country. — When the capture of Naples.

NAVAL ENCOUNTER.
A French sloop of war, a few broadsides from On August 22, a large guns entered the Bay of Naples.

Salmon
in the

was received with till after the 18th
The next day the
ance at Messina, once sent to the
At noon the Pro
both vessels prep
unlawful incident writing to our cons regret for the mist smoke it was imp Caribbean had a caused by the Ne fort under French
broadside under th

THE DA
The Beyrou
writing on the 2
lars of the execu
He says: — The
Thanks to the arri

of the cally

town. Of the in-the massacre, 57
on the same day
part in the massac
in their work of bl
culprits were only
trial, and have ric
here are aghast.
murder of mere de
the hanging of me
be. They say the
But they are cowe
There is no doubt,
sense of the Frenc
even if he had the
or, if he had done at Damascus and rout the presence
quiet, but in-the ferent. We may continues to act w mened with.

1.	100
2.	100
3.	100

giving the Moslems is far better than Moslem than from There is no men to the interior b
true, made contr
event of their hav for baggage call D'Hautpoul gives than six months t it be to help the is yet to come.

THE R
The Beyrou
on the 22nd Aug
number of Christi or six days that 5,500 men, women ascertained to be in cold blood

2

VIEW IN LITERARY ST

The news from Italy vices telegrams. The his march upon, attack things associated with ploteness which have movements in warfare.
described by a French the morning of the 21st go without having met We arrived in a great companies were concen thousand - Viva Gar Napolitana, who fig almost point blank. G the left arm and his presidential chance, a tains sought refuge in sisted of eight compan of laborers, and a bat had been despatched to prevent us from ap the mountains had en battalion after them, a
The

It would frequently run out on the bow who had dispersed in had taken refuge in a smoked at me from a

that I was not killed.
I called two bersag-
the soldiers in it gave
them was the son of the wounded. I took the
tassels of the colour-
was on the heights
received orders to go
the first of the Marine sisted of two bands of red and the other whiball, who pressed me
clasp the hand of a be-
I preserve the white
evening to continue o-

A communication
some account of the
volunteers:—"Once
troops did not make

What will be, neither you, nor I, nor the this we all have seen, that present exguerdon; patience, fulfilment; and sol-official journal. A superior force. A was formidable, and forces of General Monteleone after a quick despatch, received you confirms the news. formed a junction with isolated in Camp di Piale is a plateau, has and a little further the That position once cut off from the corps expelled to capitulate Scylla, as he was before Strait, and the citadel Garibaldi is, moreover Catanzaro, and can land at present all the The small corps of the three (1) whilst the sovereign was reading a despatch to cry because Prince Albert said something bill Manasse.

THE COMING
The Il Gariboldi Reggio and the route directly occupied him preparing to march men towards Naples from Sicily, as more from Genoa. Last Naples with troops coast.' The last all the royal forces a stand within sight expected that the K the defence of the ca seems to be inclined The situation of the described :—The p Garibaldi ; the p rovided with orders to these provinces ha such a calm, tender observance of the harshness and anger, and takes the methods of pointing them out in the moment. In Naples there are fewer soldiers talked about as the Emmanuel.

Diplomacy, like position. The Minister, was obliged to inflict on some of Naples. This his journals very much of King Victor Emmanuel to be permitted to sent to the Bay of All the nobles in great number of troops to the country.—With the capture of Naples.

NAVAL ENCOUNTER.
A French sloop captured a few broadsides from far too faultless and well-developed a form where warm hearts are untrammelled, it seems by those social rules which

The next day the French presence at Messina, as once sent to the coast. At noon the Princes both vessels prepared untoward incident writing to our consuls regret for the mistake it was impossible. Garibaldi had caused by the Neapolitan force under French broadside under the condition it have fallen, I

Paena has found has, at last been Damaeus, and, so been said by the town. Of the in the massacre, 57
on the same day
part in the massac
in their work of bl
culprits were only
trial, and have ric
here are aghest.

murder of mere de
the hanging of me
be. They say the
But they are cowe
There is no doubt,
sence of the Frenc
even if he had the
or, if he had done
at Damaeus and
rout the presence
quiet, but in the French.

headache. I hour, and de-Louis for his abuse all the more timid intelligence hood down to their own level. For nicknames as practised by some of

There is no mention of the interior but true, made contravention of their having baggage carried D'Hautpoul gives them six months to it be to help the 1 is yet to come.

• less than ten minutes from foul air

